

Lunch and Learn: General Practice Employers

Wednesday 23rd August 12-12:45pm

Introduction

The GM Good Employment Health & Care Programme is working to increase Charter awareness across the sectors to support employers to raise standards of employment and achieve full approved Charter membership.

Several interactive lunch and learn sessions are planned to take place virtually throughout the year, providing an opportunity to learn about best practice and implementation from exemplar employers, reflect on existing practice and policy, and develop a better understanding of the Charter membership application process and benefits.

What are the benefits of signing up to the GM Good Employment Charter?

- Improve workforce engagement, job satisfaction and productivity
- Help to address recruitment, retention, and performance challenges
- Market appeal and reputation as a Good Employer
- Access to tools, resources, and wider network of good practice

Session Objectives

The session will bring together key stakeholders from Greater Manchester health and care sector to learn about and reflect on Good Employment culture, best practice, and experiences, and through informal conversation and interactive Q&A delegates will:

- Learn about the Good Employment Charter
- Understand the Charter Characteristics and membership assessment process
- Share successes and challenges to planning and implementing Good Employment in health and care organisations
- Reflect upon any gaps in knowledge, skills or organisational provision and consider what action to take
- Share insight and best practice as part of a wider Good Employment movement

Audience

This session is aimed at primary care General Practice employers, operating in one or more Greater Manchester boroughs.
